

Visit the UnitedHealthcare Railroad Information Benefits Depot

www.myuhc.com/groups/railroadinfo

Our new dedicated Railroad website has been created specifically for you - our valued Railroad member! This website will give you access to important information you need as an active, pre-retiree or retired member.

You'll have the following information at your fingertips:

- Dependent eligibility
- Retirement
- A direct link to UnitedHealthcare providers
- Important UnitedHealthcare telephone numbers
- Medicare
- www.myuhc.com
- Hot topics regarding health care benefits
- Forms you can print for disability, retirement, etc.

UnitedHealthcare continually strives to provide you with the highest quality of service and looks forward to administering your health benefits in the coming year. This website will assist you when you need to make important health care decisions.

Forms are available to print and complete, saving valuable time when it comes to:

- Period of Disability
- COBRA
- Retirement Application
- Supplemental Insurance
- Beneficiary Affidavit
- Provider Nomination

Detailed information to help you make necessary health care choices on:

- The early retirement Major Medical Benefit Plan (GA-46000) and supplemental policy information regarding Plan E (GA-23111)
- Medco prescription drug coverage
- COBRA for retirees losing dental and vision coverage
- Plan F supplemental plan for those individuals who become eligible for Medicare
- A UnitedHealthcare toll-free number for those individuals interested in Medicare Prescription Part D coverage

UnitedHealthcare[®]
Healing health care. Together.SM